IMPORTANT INFORMATION

POLICY
This notice refers to a contract of insurance that you have entered into via our company. You should refer to your policy document for the full terms and conditions applicable and you should read them carefully. Should any doubts arise as to the scope of cover provided, please contact us for an explanation.
YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE
Before you enter into a contract of general insurance and up until the commencement of the insurance, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to tell the underwriter of anything that may affect the underwriters' decision whether to insure you and on what terms. You must tell the underwriter about anything that you know, or could be reasonably expected to know taking into account the nature and extent of the insurance cover to be provided and the class of persons who would ordinarily be expected to apply for such insurance cover.
For Eligible Contracts (Eligible Contracts involve individuals purchasing insurance for motor vehicles with carrying capacity under 2 tonne, motorcycle, home building and contents, residential strata, travel, personal accident and sickness and consumer credit) the above duty only applies to questions asked of you by the underwriter. In answering any such questions you must tell them anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include. You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract. You do not need to tell the underwriter anything that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>reduces the risk to be insured or that is of common knowledge;</li> <li>the underwriter knows or, in the ordinary course of business, ought to know;</li> <li>the underwriter has waived your duty to tell them about.</li> </ul>
